Professional Expertise

Luke joined the Land/Industrial Brokerage department in 2009, partnering with Jon Rausch. He is involved in all aspects of team activities, primarily focusing on land acquisition and disposition as well as mixed-use development/re-development. Luke's strong work ethic and team-orientated values make him a valuable contributor to Cushman & Wakefield.

Work Experience

Luke is duly licensed in Minnesota and Wisconsin and has recently worked on the following property types: business park land development, retail pad sales, single family residential dispositions, bank dispositions, frac sand on-load facilities (rail yards), sand/gravel mines, leasehold royalty negotiations, farmland sales, recreational sales, church sales, car dealership acquisitions and office tenant representation. Before starting his real estate career, Luke was drafted by the Oakland A's from the Minnesota Golden Gophers. He was subsequently traded to the Philadelphia Phillies where he completed his 6 year minor league career as a second baseman.

Education, Memberships and Awards
